Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

Jesus asks his disciples to go to other nations and teach others all that they have learned. He asks that these new followers be baptized in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

“Those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through which we cry ‘Abba, Father!’ The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ... ‘baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.’”

The ‘great commission’ given to the disciples is repeated for us today, for the mission and promised presence of Jesus continues to this very moment.

Perhaps when I said my morning prayers, maybe when I entered the church and blessed myself with holy water, or when the priest began the prayers of the mass, I made my profession of faith in the triune God. The Father, created me out of love, the Son came to redeem and rescue me, and the Spirit was sent to me, to animate and sustain me in the practice of our faith.

How frequently we see an athlete raise eyes and hand to heaven when he or she accomplishes a special feat. How often we notice one make a rapid sign of the cross when he comes to the plate, or attempts a difficult task. How wonderful when in a public place, a restaurant, one is seen making the sign of the cross and offering a prayer of blessing for the food he will consume.

I was baptized in the name of the trinity, and became a dwelling place for the Spirit, an heir, with all the privileges of adoption to begin my Christian, lifelong journey. I may not be able to explain fully the mystery of the Trinity, but that doesn't impede my faith.
