Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

Jesus sent two of his disciples to prepare the Passover supper. During the meal he blessed bread and offered it to them saying, "This is my body." He then offered them wine and called it his blood, "the blood of the covenant, to be poured out on behalf of many."

"While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, and said, 'Take it, this is my body.' Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, 'this is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine, until the day I drink it new in the kingdom of God.'"

With these words Saint Mark concludes the last supper and they left for Gethsemane. At every mass, as the priest, in the person of Christ, takes, breaks, blesses and tells me that Christ becomes present in his hands and on the altar. What does this gesture and these words do to me?

I look upon the sacred species and cup of blessing, and acknowledge my belief that Jesus is now present in the sacrament of His Body and Blood. The succeeding prayers are leading me to the moment when I can eat and drink the gift of Holy Communion. A miracle has taken place. In my prayer I ask the Lord to help me not to take this special moment casually or routinely. The Lord wants to come to me. I need Him, and who am I that He should pick me out for this gift? I echo the question of Elizabeth 'How is it that He comes to me?' I am His beloved and He wants to be with me.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ | Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

Jesus took the bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to His disciples, saying "Take it; this is My Body".

Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

Mark 14:23

Today we remember Jesus' creation of the Most Holy Eucharist on Holy Thursday at The Last Supper. The feast of Corpus Christi began in the 13th century and after having this name for hundreds of years, in 1970, the name was officially changed to The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Even after the change, many people still refer to the feast as Corpus Christi.

FREE COPY TO ADULT PARISHIONERS

(One Per Household – quantities are limited)

Let's help Bishop Barron reach his goal of distributing 2,000,000 copies of this book to Catholics.

This Is My Body: A Call to Eucharistic Revival is designed to accompany the National Eucharistic Revival. In this brief but illuminating text, Bishop Barron offers a threefold analysis of the Eucharist as sacred meal, sacrifice, and Real Presence, helping readers to understand the sacrament of Jesus' Body and Blood more thoroughly so that they might fall in love with him more completely.

A Pew Forum survey revealed that 69% of Catholics do not believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. For the majority of Catholics, the Eucharist is merely a symbol of Christ, and the Mass is merely a collectivity of like-minded individuals gathering to remember. In response to this crisis, Bishop Robert Barron, began working with his brother bishops on a solution. From these conversations, the National Eucharistic Revival was born.

Summer Book Club

“The word "repent" in Greek is metanoia -- but the original Greek word means much more than just repentance. It means to change, to turn, to think differently. Metanoia is not a one-time event but a process, and as Christians we are called to live a life of metanoia.”

“We all need metanoia -- over and over again. Realizing this should be a source of hope and encouragement, for only by living metanoia can we find true and lasting freedom and fulfillment in Jesus.”
