Eucharistic Adoration

Do you thirst for Love? “Come to Me all you who thirst...” (John 7:37). I will satisfy and fill you. Do you thirst to be cherished? I cherish you more than you can imagine- to the point of dying on a cross for you. I thirst for you. I thirst to love you and to be loved by you – that is how precious you are to Me. “Come to Me,” and I will fill your heart and heal your wounds. I will make you a new creation and give you peace even in your trials. I thirst for you.

Come and spend some time with me... We have Jesus here with us exposed on the altar, in the Monstrance for Eucharistic Adoration, every Wednesday from 3-6 PM. Will you respond to the call?

Give to the poor

Gospel: Mark 10:17-30

A man asks Jesus how he can share in everlasting life. Jesus tells him to sell his possessions and travel with them. The man refuses and Jesus tells his disciples how difficult it is for a rich person to enter heaven if they are too concerned with their possessions. The disciples remind Jesus that they gave up everything for him, but he assures them they will be rewarded with everlasting life.

"Indeed, the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart... 'Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?'"

We take a minute to read this reflection, we hear the word of God proclaimed at mass, we spend some time every week, reading the Bible at home. Before opening the text, as we are seated at mass, or even at this moment, consider saying 'speak Lord, your servant is listening'. This moment of focus will allow the word from Hebrews and the question from Mark to penetrate our hearts and allow us to discern what the Lord is asking of us and lead us in our journey to eternal life.

'Go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven, then come, follow me.'
