CHRISTMAS MASS SCHEDULE

Christmas Eve

4pm

8pm

12:00am Midnight

Christmas Day

8am & 10:30am

Eucharistic Adoration: Every Wed. 3-6PM

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

It is where you can be in the Presence of God in a real way. Jesus Christ Himself is present, on the altar, in a consecrated Host that is in the monstrance. "To visit the Blessed Sacrament is...proof of gratitude, an expression of love toward Christ our Lord" (CCC1418). It's where Jesus is waiting...for you to come to Him...

It takes some time to adjust to the silence & can even seem boring if you've never gone before. That's normal but if you can just breathe & relax, Jesus can teach you how to come to Him as a little child. Children find a sense of awe & wonder at things the rest of the world takes for granted or doesn't slow down to enjoy.

Re-discover Jesus! He's right here. In Adoration, God is present! Come talk to Him. He's waiting to listen to you, to help you & to pour out His graces upon you. He knows you. He loves you & He wants to bless you! "Behold the Lamb of God".

Altar Rosary Society

The Society's Mission is "to sustain the beauty and sanctity of our Church and to increase devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary by promoting true Christian Charity, love of God, Neighbor, and Catholic Family Life" and recitation of the Rosary. Meetings last about one hour in the All Purpose Room. Our membership is open to all Catholic Women and Men of our Parish. Please come to any of our monthly meetings to meet us. Our next meeting will take place on December 7th. Remember to keep praying your Rosary!

Wellness for Maturing Adults

The HOPE – Wellness Ministry invites you to join them every first Wednesday of the month where they will discuss wellness for maturing adults. This program goes far beyond simple "health practices" (diet, exercise, etc.) for better health; it teaches how to harness psychological power, and spiritual strength to achieve optimal health in body, mind and spirit. Our next meeting will be on December 4th following the 9AM Mass.

HOPE For the Homebound Ministry

We are reaching out to parishioners who may be alone, homebound, and unable to participate in our Church Community. If you are homebound, or know of someone who is homebound, and would like to receive the Eucharist or just a friendly visit or call from one of our parishioners, please call the parish office to make arrangements.

Celiac Sprue Parishioners

The parish provides a low gluten (<0.01% gluten content) host for those who are gluten-intolerant. Parishioners should see the Deacon or Priest prior to the beginning of Mass in order to be included in the reception of the Eucharist.

Gospel: Luke 21:25-28, 34-36

Jesus warns his followers to be prepared for the end of the world. He reminds them not to be preoccupied with unimportant events, or they will be caught unaware rather than being on watch as they should.

"May the Lord increase you and make you overflow with love for one another and for all, even as our love does for you. May he strengthen your hearts, making them blameless and holy before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his holy ones.... you must learn to make still greater progress..."

A new month, and a new time of prayer in the church. The message of Paul above was not directed only to the Thessalonians, but to me as I pray over these biblical verses. Advent is our time of anticipation and hope. As we live these days, I prayerfully ask what are my hopes and desires so that I can respond to God's call and make progress through His coming and grace.

Reflect upon the words – overflow with love...strengthen my heart...rid whatever evil so I am blameless...make me holy as I live advent and await His coming. Our daily prayer 'Come Lord Jesus.'

Parish Pastoral Council

What is the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC)?

The PPC is an advisory group that assists the pastor in matters important to the life of the parish (except financial). The members of the PPC's main role is to pray, reflect and make recommendations to the pastor on various parish concerns. The members are not a decision-making council.

What are some parish concerns the PPC might be called upon to assist with?

The PPC may be tasked with pastoral planning, reviewing programs we may wish to adopt at the parish, evaluating our outreach and evangelization efforts, and similar concerns.

What should the makeup of the PPC be?

The members of the PPC should reflect the makeup of the parish. Ideally, members are willing to be open to the promptings of the Holy Spirit as the PPC prayerfully considers items brought before it. Members should have the best interests of the parish at heart. Members should also be able to constructively add to the discussions taking place at the PPC meetings.

Currently, the PPC should consist of 6 members who are appointed based on parish recommendations. There is also the possibility of a youth member as well as at-large members. At-large members will be appointed by the pastor and will typically be people who have served that parish well for a number of years and whose contributions are respected and would be missed if no longer available to the parish. Parish trustees are also de facto members of the PPC.

How often does the PPC meet?

The PPC meets on the second Tuesday of each month. (Occasionally this may be adjusted due to holidays.)

How long is a term of service for a PPC member?

A term of service for the PPC is 3 years. Currently, we are reforming the PPC. WE will have 6 new members of the PPC: two will serve full terms of 3 years, two will serve for 2 years, and two will serve for just 1 year. Moving forward, each year there will be two new members appointed to 3-year terms.

Who should be considered for membership on the PPC?

It should go without saying that to be a member of the PPC a person should also be a member of the parish itself. Ideally the person should be a parishioner for awhile to get to know the parish itself. They should be someone involved in the life of the parish in some way. PPC members should be willing to be committed to the work of the PPC. (Parish staff are not eligible to be members of the PPC.)

If you are interested in joining the PPC, please submit your name for consideration in the mailbox in the commons area, or please nominate someone you think would be beneficial to this ministry.

Lessons & CAROLS

Come celebrate with our parish family the peace, joy, and love of Christmas!

Come join us on Tuesday, December 10th at 7:00PM for this joyous celebration of the birth of Jesus.

"Child Friendly" fellowship will follow the service.
